

SENTARA HEALTHCARE

Pictured (L-R): Keenal Patel and Xyrene Canlas

"The first meeting went over stress management and it couldn't have been more relatable." – Keenal Patel

"Having other people to lean on and knowing that you're not alone, that's just the biggest thing." – Xyrene Canlas

VIZIENT / AACN NURSE RESIDENCY PROGRAM™ (NRP)

TARGET APPLICANT:

This 1-year program consists of monthly sessions which focus on; leadership, patient outcomes, and the professional role.

New graduate nurses with less than 1 year of experience will automatically be entered into this program.

PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- Guidance from trained preceptors
- Structured educational experiences
- Opportunity to share your experiences/networking with peers in a safe, protected environment
- Exposure to evidence-based practice principles

PROGRAM BENEFITS:

- Receive support during your first year as you transition into a competent professional nurse
- Mentored clinical relationships with resident facilitators and others
- Improved critical thinking and communication skills
- Incorporate research-based evidence into your practice
- Develop stronger leadership skills
- Increase job satisfaction and professional commitment

For more information, please contact Sentara's Talent Acquisition Team nursingcareers@sentara.com

(9/2020)